GUIDING SCRIPTURE

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." (Matthew 19:14).

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide written processes to comply with accreditation requirements about:

- (a) how the school will respond to harm, or allegations of harm, to students under 18 years; and
- (b) the appropriate conduct of the school's staff and students.

LEVEL AND SCOPE

The scope of this policy extends to students and employees, including full-time, part-time, permanent, fixed term and casual employees, as well as contractors, volunteers, School Council members and people undertaking work experience or vocational placements at St John's Lutheran School.

The policy will not be altered by St John's Lutheran School, other than to amend the policy to insert relevant details specific to St John's Lutheran School.

DEFINITIONS

Under Section 9 of the *Child Protection Act 1999, harm, to a child, is any detrimental effect of a significant nature on the child's physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing.

1. It is immaterial how the harm is caused.
2. Harm can be caused by
 - a) physical, psychological or emotional abuse or neglect; or
 - b) sexual abuse or exploitation.
3. Harm can be caused by
 - a) a single act, omission or circumstance; or
 - b) a series or combination of acts, omissions or circumstances.

Under Section 10 of the *Child Protection Act 1999, a child in need of protection is a child who:

- a) has suffered significant harm, is suffering significant harm, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm; and
- b) does not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

Under Section 364 of the *Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, sexual abuse, in relation to a relevant person, includes sexual behaviour involving the relevant person and another person in the following circumstances:

- (a) the other person bribes, coerces, exploits, threatens or is violent toward the relevant person
- (b) the relevant person has less power than the other person
- (c) there is a significant disparity between the relevant person and the other person in intellectual capacity or maturity.

POLICY STATEMENT

St John's Lutheran School is committed to the safety, wellbeing and welfare of all children and young people within our School community and is dedicated to providing a safe and supportive environment where children and young people are protected from harm. All staff have a responsibility to report risk of harm concerns about children and young people, within their roles, and to provide support to children and young people.

PROCEDURES

1. Health and Safety

St John's Lutheran School has written processes in place to enable it to comply with the requirements of the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (Qld) and Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening Act 2000 (Qld).

2. Responding to Reports of Harm

When the school receives any information alleging *harm*¹ to a student (other than harm arising from physical or sexual abuse) it will deal with the situation compassionately and fairly so as to minimise any likely harm to the extent it reasonably can.

¹ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.16(7): the definition of 'harm' for this regulation is the same as in section 9 of the Child Protection Act 1999 (Qld)

This is set out in the school's Child Risk Management Strategy. Information relating to physical or sexual abuse is handled under obligations to report set out in this policy².

3. Conduct of Staff and Students

All staff, contractors and volunteers must ensure that their behaviour towards, and relationships with students reflect proper standards of care for students. Staff, contractors and volunteers must not cause harm to students³.

4. Reporting Inappropriate Behaviour

If a student considers the behaviour of a staff member to be inappropriate, the student should report the behaviour to:

- Mr Steven Lake, Deputy Principal; or
- Mrs Karyn Bjelke-Petersen, Principal.⁴

5. Dealing with Report of Inappropriate Behaviour

A staff member who receives a report of inappropriate behaviour must report it to the Principal. Where the Principal is the subject of the report of inappropriate behaviour, the staff member must inform a member of the School Council⁵. Reports will be dealt with under the School's Complaints Handling Policy.

6. Reporting Sexual Abuse⁶

Section 366 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member becomes aware, or reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the school, that any of the following has been sexually abused by another person:

- a) a student under 18 years attending the school
- b) a kindergarten aged child registered in a kindergarten learning program at the school
- c) a person with a disability who:
 - i. under section 420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the school, and
 - ii. is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the school

then the staff member must give a written report about the abuse or suspected abuse to the Principal or to the Executive Director⁷ of Lutheran Education Queensland (director@leq.lutheran.edu.au) immediately.

The Principal or Executive Director of Lutheran Education Queensland must immediately give a copy of the report to a police officer.

If the first person who becomes aware or reasonably suspects sexual abuse is the Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the abuse, or suspected abuse to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to the Executive Director of Lutheran Education Queensland immediately.

A report under this section must include the following particulars:

² Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.16(1)

³ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.16(1)

⁴ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.16(2) and 16(3)

⁵ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.16(2)

⁶ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.16(2)(c)

⁷ The Lutheran Church of Australia Queensland District has delegated its director's reporting function under s366 and 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 to the Executive Director, Lutheran Education Queensland in line with s 366B.

- a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person)
- b) the student's name and sex
- c) details of the basis for the first person becoming aware, or reasonably suspecting, that the student has been sexually abused by another person
- d) details of the abuse or suspected abuse
- e) any of the following information of which the first person is aware:
 - i. the student's age
 - ii. the identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to have abused, the student
 - iii. the identity of anyone else who may have information about the abuse or suspected abuse⁸.

7. Reporting Likely Sexual Abuse ⁹

Section 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the school, that any of the following is likely to be sexually abused by another person:

- a) a student under 18 years attending the school
- b) a kindergarten aged child registered in a kindergarten learning program at the school
- c) a person with a disability who:
 - i. under section 420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the school, and
 - ii. is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the school

then the staff member must give a written report about the suspicion to the Principal or to the Executive Director¹⁰ Lutheran Education Queensland (director@leq.lutheran.edu.au) immediately.

The school's Principal or the Executive Director of Lutheran Education Queensland must immediately give a copy of the report to a police officer.

If the first person who reasonably suspects likely sexual abuse is the school's Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the suspicion to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to the Executive Director of Lutheran Education Queensland immediately.

A report under this section must include the following particulars:

- a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person);
- b) the student's name and sex;
- c) details of the basis for the first person reasonably suspecting that the student is likely to be sexually abused by another person;
- d) any of the following information of which the first person is aware:
 - i. the student's age;
 - ii. the identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to be likely to abuse, the student;
 - iii. the identity of anyone else who may have information about suspected likelihood of abuse¹¹.

⁸ Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.68

⁹ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.16(2)(c)

¹⁰ The Lutheran Church of Australia Queensland District has delegated its director's reporting function under s366 and 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 to the Executive Director, Lutheran Education Queensland in line with s 366B.

¹¹ Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.69

8. Reporting Physical and Sexual Abuse¹²

Under Section 13E (3) of the Child Protection Act 1999, if a doctor, a registered nurse, a teacher or an early childhood education and care professional forms a reportable suspicion about a child 'in the course of their engagement in their profession', they must make a written report.

A reportable suspicion about a child is a reasonable suspicion that the child:

- a) has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse; and
- b) may not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm¹³.

The doctor, nurse, teacher or early childhood education and care professional must give a written report to the Chief Executive of the Department of Child Safety, Seniors and Disability Services (or another department administering the Child Protection Act 1999). The doctor, nurse, teacher or early childhood education and care professional should give a copy of the report to the Principal.

A report under this section must include the following particulars:

- a) the basis on which the person has formed the reportable suspicion¹⁴; and
- b) the child's name and sex descriptor;
- c) the child's age;
- d) details of how to contact the child;
- e) details of the harm to which the reportable suspicion relates;
- f) particulars of the identity of the person suspected of causing the child to have suffered, suffer, or be at risk of suffering, the harm to which the reportable suspicion relates;
- g) particulars of the identity of any other person who may be able to give information about the harm to which the reportable suspicion relates¹⁵.

The written report may also be completed online through the Department of Child Safety, Seniors and Disability Services utilising the following link:

9. Responsibilities under Criminal Code Act 1899 (Qld)

Failure to Report¹⁶

Under section 229BC of the Criminal Code Act 1899, all adults, inclusive of parents/guardians, volunteers and students 18 years or older must report sexual offences against a child by another adult to police as soon as reasonably practicable after the belief is, or ought reasonably to have been, formed. Failure to make a report, without a reasonable excuse, is a criminal offence.

¹³ Child Protection Act 1999 s.13E(2)

¹⁴ Child Protection Act 1999 s.13G (2)(a)

¹⁵ See Child Protection Regulation 2023 (Qld) s.4 "Information to be included in report to Chief Executive"

¹⁶ Criminal Code Act 1899 (Qld) s.229BC

A reasonable excuse not to make a report under the Criminal Code Act 1899 includes that a report has already been made under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (reporting sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse) and the Child Protection Act 1999 (reporting significant harm or risk of significant harm) as per this policy.

Failure to Protect¹⁷

Under Section 229BB of the Criminal Code Act 1899, all adults in positions of power or responsibility within institutions to reduce or remove the risk of child sexual offences being committed must take reasonable steps to protect children in their care from a child sexual offence. A failure to protect is an offence. Accountable persons will commit an offence if:

- a) the adult knows there is a significant risk that another adult (the alleged offender) will commit a child sexual offence in relation to a child; and
- b) the alleged offender is associated with the school (or another institution) or is a regulated volunteer; and
- c) the child is under the care, supervision or control of the school; and
- d) the child is under 16 years or is a person with an impairment of the mind; and
- e) the adult has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove the risk; and
- f) the adult wilfully or negligently fails to reduce or remove the risk.

If in doubt, always assume that a matter is reportable.

10. Awareness

St John's Lutheran School will inform staff, students and parents of its processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students in communications to them and it will publish these processes on its website¹⁸.

11. Accessibility of Processes

Processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students are accessible on the school website and will be available on request in hard copy format from the school administration¹⁹.

12. Training

St John's Lutheran School will train its staff in processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students on their induction and will refresh training annually²⁰. A record of attendance by staff in induction training and annual refresher sessions will be maintained by the school.

13. Implementing the Processes

St John's Lutheran School will ensure it is implementing processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students by auditing compliance with the processes annually²¹.
